

Announcement

Soliciting Letters of Interest to serve on the Colfax County Lodgers Tax Advisory Board

The Colfax County Board of Commissioners passed a lodger's tax ordinance at its regular meeting on May 28, 2019. Ordinance 2019-02 will become effective July 1, 2019. The County Commission is seeking letters of interest from individuals to serve on the Lodgers Tax Advisory Board. This will be a five-member board subject to confirmation by the Commission. Two members will be operators of lodging subject to the tax, two members who are operators of industries located within the unincorporated area of the County whose business is primarily related to tourists and one member from the unincorporated area of the County who represents the public. The Board will advise the County Commission and submit recommendations for the expenditure of lodger's tax funds according to the County ordinance and New Mexico Lodgers Tax Act.

Please submit your letter of interest to:

Mary Lou Kern

Colfax County Manager

PO Box 1498

Raton, NM 87740
