12. Presentation – Citizens for the Developmentally Disabled Workshop, Bobby LeDoux

Bobby LeDoux and his staff from Citizens for the Developmentally Disabled Workshop were very thankful for the support last year. Each gave a report from their program starting with Remy Garcia, Senior Companion Program. They have helped with transportation and assisted 1000 miles already. They are meeting their goals and actually exceeding. Patricia Pompeo, Children's Workshop Program; they service 75 kids and families with a special education program. Their goal is to get them ready for school, notify the school districts who will be enrolling and what their needs may be along with providing wheelchairs, etc. They are servicing more in the last 4-5 years due to babies being born addicted to drugs, which is making their jobs tough. Bert Dennis, Adult Developmental Disability Program; she explained how the programs are funded and the many changes that are coming starting in 2019. Raton/Colfax County is the only place in America that has all 3 basic programs in place, Senior Companion/Foster Grandparent, Family Encantado, and the Adult Developmental Disability Programs. Others will be looking at our model community as to how we service delivery and for our strategic planning since we are far ahead of everyone else. Bobby LeDoux, Executive Director stated Citizens for the Developmentally Disabled has been in business for thirty-six years. They have 60 fulltime employees, 10-15 part time employees and 6-7 sub-contractors. Their funding coming from three funding streams; Medicaid Waiver Contract, Medicaid Provider Contract and State General Fund Contract. The building received a lot of bad hail damage and there is other maintenance issues that need to be addressed. Chairman Sauble stated he has looked at the roof issue, insurance adjuster was there and now waiting to hear from them. The Commissioners recognize the services CDD provides to the County.

13. Discuss/ Action – Memorandum of Understanding U.S. Marshals Service Violent Offender Task Force

The primary mission of the task force is to investigate and arrest, as part of joint law enforcement operations, persons who have active state and federal warrants for their arrest. The intent of the joint effort is to investigate and apprehend local, state and federal fugitives,
